

About the Book Fair

HHFB has collected over 100,000 items to be sold at the Annual Book Fair, including books, CD's, DVD's, LP records, games and puzzles.

This event will provide opportunities for fun for everyone, including concessions and entertainment each day. Last year, approximately 4,000 people visited the event.

About the Food Bank

Hoosier Hills Food Bank distributed a record 3,766,104 pounds of food through 100 partner agencies in 2015.

HHFB is excited to be the host of the Annual Bloomington Community Book Fair!

This year, we hope that the Book Fair will be a great fundraiser for the food bank. With the funds raised from this event, we hope to provide more food to all of our partner agencies.

Fighting Hunger

Hoosier Hills Food Bank has been taking the hunger out of poverty for struggling families in Bloomington and six surrounding counties since 1982. In that time, more than 50 million pounds of food have been collected or rescued from being wasted, and channeled to people in need via emergency food pantries and kitchens and other local nonprofit organizations.

Feeding Hope

Your support is not just an investment in an organization, it's an investment in people and in this community that we're all a part of. Not only do we have a shared responsibility to care for those who suffer, we have a shared destiny. The return on your investment comes in the form of higher graduation rates, reduced absenteeism, increased productivity, lower healthcare costs, and a community that is better able to rise to the challenges of the world.
